

NEW ENGLAND OLD ENGLISH SHEEPDOG RESCUE, INC.

Foster Care And/Or Transport Release Form

HOTLINE: 781-819-0131

The person named below who is providing transportation (the “transporter”) and/or foster care services (the “foster home”) for the New England Old English Sheepdog Rescue, Inc. (“NEOESR”) assumes all responsibility for the actions of any rescue Old English Sheepdog (“OES”) while in the care of the undersigned. This responsibility starts from the time the dog is picked up until it is signed over to a veterinary hospital, other facility, or adoptive home. The transporter and/or foster home will be expected to keep the animal safe and secure; return it to NEOESR when requested to do so; not promise the animal to anyone, or imply that they have the authority to approve a potential adoption. NEOESR retains ownership of all animals being transported and/or placed in foster care and will make all decisions regarding the adoption and placement of the transported and/or fostered animals.

NEOESR will provide any collar, leash, or crate necessary to provide appropriate, safe transportation and/or foster care for a rescue OES. The transporter and/or foster home will function in a manner required by the guidelines and requirements given to them describing the role of the individual in providing transportation and/or foster care for the NEOESR Rescue Program.
